THE NEW YEAR USHERS IN A NEW SPA AT VICEROY ANGUILLA

January 2013 – For many, a New Year signals a time for renewal, rejuvenation and relaxation. After a three-month transformation, The Spa at Viceroy Anguilla is now open to welcome guests to its newly renovated facility. The Spa has added to its unparalleled experience with seven waterfront treatment rooms, a side-by-side manicure/pedicure station and three oceanfront cabanas.

Perfect for the New Year, guests can enjoy the Spa with the Art of the Getaway package, which includes the daily use of a poolside cabana and a $100 resort credit that may be used toward their desired spa treatment. Rates for the overnight package begin at $550 per night.

With a completely redesigned lobby now doubled from its original size, the spa features special selections from the Seaside Luxe Boutique that are displayed as guests enter the serene space.

The Spa at Viceroy Anguilla features five new treatment rooms, increasing the total to 16, and expanding the luxury facility to 8,870 square feet. Speaking to the ultra-luxurious look and feel of the Spa, all treatment rooms have been completely redesigned to their own specialized personality, with certain rooms and cabanas overlooking the picturesque Meads Bay. In addition, two side-by-side manicure and pedicure stations have been added for increased opportunities to refresh, renew, and revive.

The Spa is open daily 9 am - 7 pm The Fitness Center is open daily 7am - 8pm
